Mary Magdalene ... ...

By Joey Scarfone

WHY I LIKE IT: Poetry Editor HEZEKIAH writes... I just love Joseph Scarfone he is truly unique, inspired and original in his writing, “Jesus wore leather that night and Mary wore a mini skirt.....very very tight / they had come a long way from Nazareth to the bright lights of Rome” Anachronistic, anarchistic, meta-mischief. It gets even better; the pair hookup with a resurrected David Bowie, no less, “from the sistine chapel / to the big apple” The man’s head is a maze-ing...if you found your way in, you’d never look for a way out. “Jesus was definitely out of control / he was getting too much power from his rock and roll” “David had left for Amsterdam, he could see the end was near / Jesus and Mary were close to his heart but they wouldn’t last a year” Joey doesn’t phone it in...he turns up unexpected, sophisticated, straight-shootin’ street-smarts. A one-of-kind that beats a royal flush—more, more, more with encore...He makes for great Fleas reading.

Jesus and Mary Magdalen {sic}

Jesus wore leather that night and Mary wore a mini skirt.....very very tight they had come a long way from Nazareth to the bright lights of Rome a long way from Babylon a long way from home

David Bowie flew in from Japan or so the papers said he just couldn't miss a party like this so he decided to come back from the dead never shy of the spotlight, they really lit up the town David, Jesus and Mary Magdalen really knew how to get around they drew a crowd wherever they went and record sales were great from the sistine chapel to the big apple the media just couldn't wait one miracle followed the other but the politicians weren't impressed Jesus in his leathers and Mary in her cute little dress

Jesus was definitely out of control he was getting too much power from his rock and roll his fans adored him while the clergy deplored him what would they do with this soul now Jesus and Mary Magdalen had to cover their tracks their following grew and so did their crew they needed security to watch over their backs

David had left for Amsterdam, he could see the end was near Jesus and Mary were close to his heart but they wouldn't last a year everyone wept for Jesus when they saw what was done to him turning water into wine was just too big a sin they should have stayed in Nazareth and simply settled down but Jesus and Mary Magdalen wore a very thorny crown

THE POET SPEAKS: I find it disturbing to see the atrocities that organized religions have committed. I think they deserve to be held accountable for their actions. This poem is my way of throwing darts at them. It may not change anything but then again....it might.
