

Italy..in your glass!

your virtual wine shop by
ElisaBosco.Wine

Italy.. in your glass! is the special selection for individual consumers where you'll find only wines we personally know and like. All of them are organic or sustainable, made with autochthonous grapes, with low sulfites and natural vinification techniques. We work with authentic people and winemakers, who produce unique wines that tell the stories of the beautiful places across Italy they come from. Each of these wines would then worth a tour, but in the meantime, you can start to travel with taste just enjoying them straight and easily in your glass.

Cheers!

Born and raised in Tuscany, Elisa has a degree in Moderne Literature and has worked as a journalist and in the PR and marketing sectors. With a lifelong passion for wine, Elisa, upon her return to Italy after years spent in NYC, decided to become a liaison between the US and Italy for Italian wineries. For the last decade she has worked to promote Italian wines abroad (www.elisabosco.wine).

She also works as a professional photographer (www.elisabosco.com).
