At Bear-Nicastro Floral Design, we have a long-standing history in the floristry industry that spans over generations, starting in the 1930s with a family-run store in Hoxton Market and several flower stalls in Islington and London's West End. Taking elements from each generation, our florists use traditional methods entwined with a modern approach to create our unique, distinctive style.

Over the years, we have developed a strong working relationship with the Covent Garden Flower Market; this enables us to deliver the best quality, fresh flowers and source more unusual species at a cost-effective price.

We offer bespoke services for every occasion, including wedding events, religious celebrations, funeral pieces, coffin sprays, tributes and personalised bouquets.

We pride ourselves on excellence and recognise the importance of delivering custom designs suited to the customer's requests.

PLEASE NOTE: Flowers may be changed as some are seasonal. All styles and colours are adaptable to your choice and liking.

Flowers are an expression of respect, sympathy and love for the deceased.
