

2022 GUIDELINES FOR VENDORS

Thank you for your interest in participating in the 15th Annual Concord Multicultural Festival!

With your participation, we're able to create an engaging event that brings people together to celebrate the diverse heritages that make the Greater Concord community so enriching.

Each year, the Concord Multicultural Festival features a full lineup of performances, food vendors, craft vendors, artists and activities that showcase the many cultures that are represented in our community.

GUIDELINES:

- All food vendors are responsible for their own space and items.
- This is a family event. Items and materials displayed and offered at booths should be respectful of all cultures and people. The Festival Committee reserves the right to restrict displays which, because of noise, methods of operation, materials or for any reason, are offensive or become objectionable, and to prohibit or remove any displays which, in the opinion of the Festival Committee, detract from the general character of the Festival. This includes anything political that is directly related to a specific candidate or party.
- No alcohol, fireworks, silly string, snap pops, stink bombs, or anything else that would cause damage or excessive mess.
- Individual vendors will be held responsible for any damage caused to City property during the Festival.
- Due to the outdoor nature and size of the Concord Multicultural Festival, we are not able to be responsible for your equipment, materials, belongings, etc. The Festival assumes no liability for vendors' property at any time before, during or after the event.
- Vendors are responsible for their own general and product liability insurance (optional).
- Locations, procedures, guidelines, and fees are not guaranteed for future festivals.
