The Citizen Spectrum

Where are you at on this spectrum?
Where do you want to be?

When you're ready to engage, Convention of States Action is here to help you become part of the largest self-governing grassroots army this country has ever seen.

	The American Dream: Liberty and leisure	The American Reality: What's happening to our country?			The American Responsibility: A republic, if we can keep it

Primary use of time	Enjoying	Spending			Investing
Primary civic activity	Does whatever the law requires; Votes based on personal preferences.	Does everything in first column; Reflects on civic issues based on personal convictions; Expresses opinions on them conversationally; To the degree this citizen is accurately informed by resources utilized, opinions can be thoughtful, coherent and relevant; Spends time learning and talking about current issues.			Does everything in first two columns; Recognizes the historic tendency of unchecked, unaccountable governing power to grow, consolidate and minimize individual liberty; Understands citizens living as free as we can as long as we can requires regular, civic interaction with elected representatives; Realizes that liberty not actively preserved is liberty lost; Takes action to maximize and preserve individual liberty.

"It is the common fate of the indolent to see their rights become a prey to the active. The condition upon which God hath given liberty to man is eternal vigilance, which condition if he break, servitude is at once the consequence of his crime and the punishment of his guilt."

~ John Philpot Curran, 1790

"Freedom is never more than one generation from extinction. We didn't pass it to our children in the bloodstream. It must be fought for, protected, and handed on to them to do the same. Or one day we will spend our sunset years telling our children and [theirs] what it was once like in the United States when men were free." ~ Ronald Reagan
