Who is Dr. Douglas G. Frank?

Dr. Douglas Frank is a family man with a wife and 3 children; a Christian; patriot; and an America First person. He is a well-educated individual who has earned a B.S. Degree in Chemistry from Westmont College in Santa Barbara California in 1986, and his Ph.D. in Surface Electroanalytical Chemistry from the University of Cincinnati in 1990. His Ph.D. of Surface Electroanalytical Chemistry combines chemistry with physics techniques for the manipulation and analysis of molecules on surfaces. Dr. Douglas G. Frank is a world-renowned physicist with around sixty peer-reviewed scientific publications. His scientific publications which included cover and feature articles have appeared in the world's leading scientific journals such as Science and Naturwissenschaften. After graduating, Dr. Frank formed "ADAM Instrument Company, Inc." This brought him international acclaim. Due to his publications and his company, he is regarded as an expert in Auger Spectroscopy. He left academics in 1996, and has since done extensive consulting, inventing, technical manufacturing, building electron microscopes, laser scanners, precision manufacturing and control devices. His scientific reputation gained him access to several U.S. companies. He learned to apply his scientific and computer expertise to real-life research. Dr. Frank's scientific, electronic, instrumental, and software expertise make him an asset in situations requiring systems integration. His skills make him especially suited for the preparation and development of 'intelligent' user-friendly software that allows straightforward operation and control in complicated manufacturing and analytical environments. Dr. Frank was nominated for a Noble Prize in Chemistry.

How did we find out about Dr. Frank?

We found out about Dr. Frank on Frank Speech, YouTube and Telegram. We have watched many of his excellent presentations. Through Cause of America and was being the Maine Leads, we attended Mike Lindell's Moment of Truth Summit in 2022, where Dr. Frank was one of the top speakers. In July 2023, we invited Dr. Frank to speak at John Linnehan's Constitution Hall and he accepted. He presented his Seven Steps: Taking Back Our Elections Plan. He accepted our invitation to return and train We the People with implementing his plan. At Mike Lindell's Election Summit in 2023, he was very enthusiastic about returning October 30-November 2. We are so excited about the positive response to Dr. Frank's Plan from all of you that have joined us.
