JANUARY 2025

JANUARY OVERVIEW

Happy New Year! Happy to Have You Back.

We hope your holidays were as spectacular as ours and that you're ready to get back into the routine. We are certainly happy to have you back.

This month, we share an update on the expected opening date for NHHSA Horizon, we look forward to the coming Valentine holiday with a door competition and a poetry contest, and we bring some insight on what you can expect in the coming semester.

So, read on...you will want to stay informed.

Classes Resume

Classes resume on all NHHSA campuses on Monday, January 6.

It's time to get back to work and make the coming semester a fabulous one.

We're happy to welcome everyone back!

thank you!

Your Donations Brought Great Joy to the People of the El Paso Homeless Shelters

Your generosity warms our hearts. Thank you!

Having collected more than a truckload of food, clothes, and toys, we gratefully took them to the El Paso Homeless Shelters, where they could do the most good for those who do not share our good fortunes. A quick visit to their facilities on Myrtle St. clearly shows their desperation.

Your contributions never go overlooked.

To the Winners of the Creatively Ugly Sweater Competition:

Congratulations!

It's official. Ms. Isvia and her class of eager 3rd to 6th graders took the top prize in our Ugly & Creative Christmas Sweater Competition in mid-December.

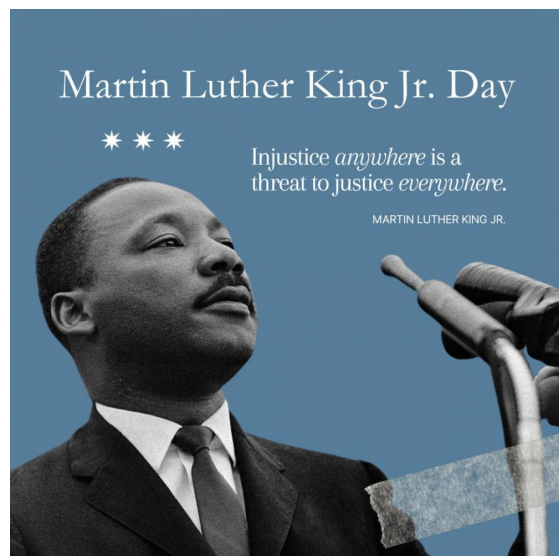

Congratulations! We hope you enjoy every bit of your Pizza Party on the 24th. We also hope you share it with school administrators, but that's a whole 'nother story.

Martin Luther King Day

In appreciation of his fight for justice for people of all races, NHHSA will be closed on Monday, January 20, in honor of Martin Luther King, Jr.

Classes will resume on normal schedule on Tuesday, January 21.

Scrabble for Learning Fun!

We can't help it. We're always looking for ways to improve learning that also engages and entertains, which is exactly what we intend to do with the Scrabble board game.

The board game will come to your child's classroom in mid-January, and then the organized games will begin.

You should also know that we are secretly planning a Scrabble competition in March!

Stay tuned.

Poetry and Valentine's Door Decoration Competition

NHHSA is delighted to kick off our annual Door Decoration competition, with Valentine's Day right around the corner. It's a tradition!

Campuses will submit pictures of one or all of their Valentine-themed door decorations no later than February 7. All pictures will be considered independently, and NHHSA HQ will select the winning campus based on the most beautiful door.

The winning campus will be announced on Friday, February 14, and we will show you pictures in the March Newsletter.

Meanwhile, students in all classrooms will have days dedicated to reading poetry (or having it read to them, in the case of the very little ones).

It is known that reading poetry stimulates the imagination and enhances creativity. It also improves interpretation skills - all benefits we want our kids to have.

We follow this up by encouraging students to write their own poems in appreciation of friends and family - something they are always happy to do.

We look forward to sharing some of their poems with you.

Update on NHHSA Horizon's Door Opening

For those of you patiently awaiting the opening of NHHSA Horizon, we received a remodeling update from their Directors. The new date for their scheduled opening is February 3.

The delays principally involve awaiting inspections, a process heavily affected by the holidays.

All members of the NHHSA Horizon staff are working hard to complete the renovations. They are excited to welcome you soon!

CLASS OF 2024

As early as it may seem, we must now turn our attention to our upcoming Graduation Ceremonies, scheduled for Wednesday, May 28, 2025.

If you have a student in Kinder, 8th, and 12th grades, you will receive an email by January 22 that will give you the particulars regarding this year's ceremony and your student's participation in it.

We ask that you notify us no later than February 21 of your intent to have your student participate. We must order diplomas, caps and gowns, and prepare personalized invitations. You can see why time is of the essence.

If you have a student in one of these grade levels and have not received an email with all the information by January 22, please contact our administrative offices so we can forward it to you immediately.

Our graduation ceremony will be held at the Wyndham Hotel & Resort (Airport) in the AV Theater. It will begin promptly at 7 p.m.

Please feel free to contact the Director of your campus with any questions.

Thank you! We look forward to joining you in celebrating your student's accomplishments.

Something to remember:

I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character. I have a dream today.
