

Community Living Education Project
sharing possibilities

Sharing Possibilities for Community Connections Learning Series

Please Join CLEP's Fall Webinars!

Webinars for people with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities, caregivers, and professionals

All webinars are held

12pm - 1pm

Wednesday, November 30, 2021 Future Planning to Maintain Benefits: Special Needs Trust & Guardianship

Hillary Freeman, Esq.
Freeman Law Offices

- Understanding Special Needs Trusts
- Responsibilities of the Trustee
- Is Guardianship appropriate?
- Rights and responsibilities of a guardian

To Register:

<https://go.rutgers.edu/5sy045wl>

Wednesday, December 15, 2021 Key Questions when Selecting (or Creating) a program for Individuals With Autism/IDD and Challenging Behavior

Lisa McCauley Parles, Esq.
Parles Rekem, LLP

- Essential questions for a program's BCBA
- Assessments and tracking progress
- The importance of family involvement
- Special constructions considerations
- Housing Initiatives

To Register:

<https://go.rutgers.edu/uat72f18>

The Community Living Education Project (CLEP) is committed to providing information and education about community living and the resources available to make that possibility a reality for people with intellectual and / or developmental disabilities in New Jersey.

Learn more about us at <https://rutgerstraining.sph.rutgers.edu/CLEP/>