IN THE COURT OF CLAIMS OF OHIO

LOREN C. SENGSTOCK

Requester

v.

CITY OF TWINSBURG

Respondent

Case No. 2021-00330PQ

Special Master Jeff Clark

ORDER

On June 16, 2021, requester Loren Sengstock filed a complaint pursuant to R.C. 2743.75 alleging that respondent City of Twinsburg denied her access to public records in violation of R.C. 149.43(B). On September 1, 2021, the City filed its motion to dismiss, in which it asserts that it has provided Parrish with inspection of all existing records responsive to her requests, except for the names of its employees under the age of eighteen which it has redacted.

As part of the "expeditious and economical procedure" provided in R.C. 2743.75, the required pleadings are streamlined to a complaint by the requester, and a response by the public office. However, the special master may require additional pleading, documents, and information as deemed necessary for determination of the matter. In order to identify the remaining dispute in this case, the special master requires an additional pleading from requester Sengstock. Pursuant to R.C. 2743(E)(3)(c), Sengstock is directed to file a reply pleading, along with any supporting documents and/or affidavit, that addresses the following:

1. Do you accept that all disputed matters were resolved in mediation except for the withholding of names of City employees under the age of eighteen? If not, identify in as much detail as possible any other withheld record(s) remaining in dispute.
