February 2025 - Featured Artist

Devon Rodriquez

By studying the work of other artists, I gain new ideas, techniques, and perspectives to incorporate into my own art. This month I'm featuring a wonderful young artist from New York City, Devon Rodriquez.

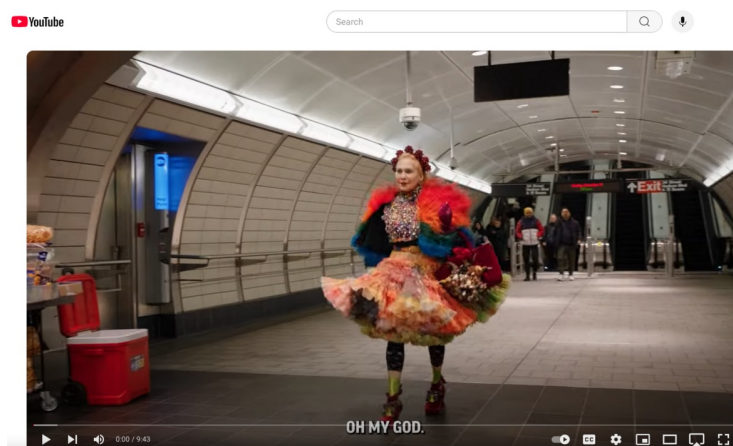

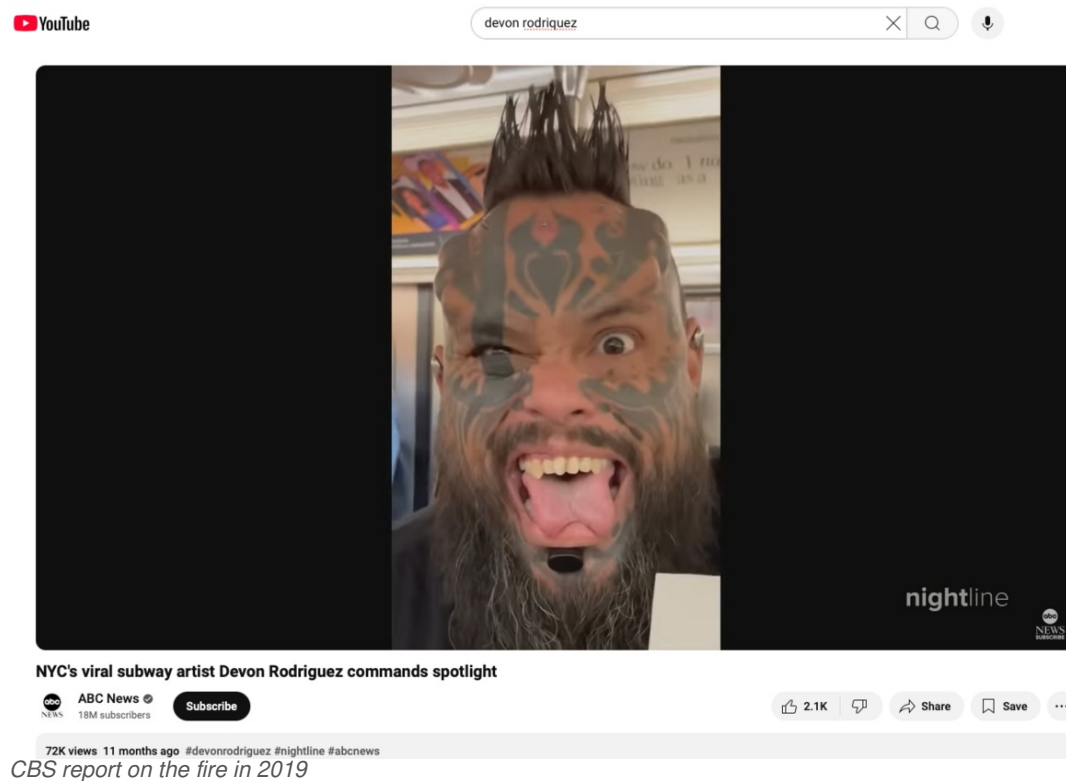

Devon was born on April 8, 1996 in the South Bronx and, by age 8, was doing graffiti with his friends. When he was 13 he was arrested and he turned his attention to drawing portraits. In 2010, he applied to the High School of Art and Design in Manhattan but was not accepted. He attended Samuel Gompers High School in the Bronx for two years and in 2012 was accepted to the High School of Art and Design where he graduated in 2014. Later, he attended the Fashion Institute of Technology.

Devon initially gained recognition for drawing a series of realistic portraits of commuters on the New York City Subway.

In 2019, Rodriguez was a finalist in the prestigious Outwin Boochever Portrait Competition for his portrait of sculptor John Ahern, his mentor and friend.

In 2020, Devon joined TikTok and quickly achieved one of the largest followings of an artist for quick-sketching commuters and capturing their reactions.

ABC Nightline covered Devon Rodriguez's "Underground" that opened on September 6th, 2023. (Click on the image below to view the Nightline feature.)

Devon's Subway Watercolor

Devon meets strangers and in 30 minutes captures interesting people in the NYC subway. Devon also does a great job interviewing the individuals he paints.
