Walking in DaVinci's Shoes

For an Italian class at Rutgers University, I was asked to speak Italian and use my oil painting of "The Last Super" for a class project. I had a blast - the class will never be the same!

My acting career

One of my first paintings, when I was 18 years old, was "The Last Supper". My mom wanted an oil painting and sassed me to recreate Davinci's the "Last Super". She always loved that painting and hung it in the dining room of her house in Brooklyn. I never thought of myself as an artist but, looking back, MAYBE I had a little talent. However, as a career, accounting did pay the bills.

Art Print for $235 in a Wood Bark Frame 15"x18" - I recently completed this oil painting and a friend bought the original oil painting. I was lucky enough to get 2 additional wood bark frames and I am selling the print for $235 with the frame, matting and free delivery. Email or call me if interested.
