July 2023 - 3S Art Newsletter - Creativity in Film

Recently, I watched the Netflix series "Jury Duty" and marveled at the creativity of this 8 episode series. For those who haven't heard of it, "Jury Duty" is purportedly a documentary that highlights what it's like to serve on a jury. However, it turns out that this is a documentary of a very elaborate and incredibly creative prank.

Hilarity ensues as you find out that in this documentary, everything is fake. Everyone you see on screen is an actor - the judge, the lawyers, the defendant, the bailiff - all are actors and accomplished improvisers. Everyone, except for one, is in on the gag. In a jury of 12, a single juror named Ronald Gladden is the only who believes that the trial is real and it's through his eyes that the show unfolds.

If you haven't watched it yet, I highly recommend you do.
