Jersey Shore towns

“Life takes you down many paths but my favorite ones lead to the beach.” Anonymous

For the better part of my life, I've lived at the Jersey shore and found that each beach town is unique - each having its own history and vibe. The Jersey shore coastline stretches approximately 140 miles starting with Sandy Hook at the north end down to Cape May at the south. Everyone has their memories of the Jersey shore and their favorite towns. My personal favorites include: Sandy Hook, for its natural beauty; Ocean Grove and Asbury Park, for their rich history; Cape May, for its architecture.

What are your favorite beach town? Did they make the list below?
