

6 - The Prayer for Salvations

Prayer #1

"Gracious Father, I come to You today with a heavy heart for those who do not yet know You. I lift up [Name the people on your heart] and ask that You would do what only You can do—draw them to Yourself.

Lord, the enemy has blinded their mind so they cannot see the light of the gospel. I ask that You rip away every veil and demolish every stronghold of pride or doubt that keeps them from Your truth. Melt their heart of stone and give them a heart of flesh that is sensitive to Your Spirit.

I pray for ordained encounters—those who can speak Your Word with clarity and boldness in a way they will finally understand. Send me as well; give me the right words and a heart of compassion so I may speak and show Your love.

Thank You that You are the Good Shepherd who leaves the ninety-nine to find the one lost sheep. I trust in Your perfect timing and Your unfailing desire that no one should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

In the mighty name of Jesus, Amen."

Prayer #2

"Loving Father, I bring [Name the people on your heart] before You today. You know their story, their struggles, and the walls they have built up. I ask that You break through the distractions of their life and make Your presence real to them in a way they cannot ignore.

Lord, I ask You to open their spiritual eyes. Take away the confusion, the pride, and the pain that keeps them from seeing Your truth. Soften their heart so they can finally hear Your voice calling them home. Please put the right people in their path today—people who will speak the right words at the right time with genuine love.

If You can use me to reach them, give me the wisdom to know what to say and the courage to say it. Help me to love them like You do—without judgment, but with a deep desire for them to find the peace and life that only You can give. I trust that You are already working in their life, even when I can't see it.

In the name of Jesus, Amen."
