Presents

S.A.F.E.

Situational Awareness Program

1 Second... Just one more second of time to react...

Often this can mean the difference between life and death when the unthinkable happens.

Situational Awareness and understanding the science of Pre-Threat Indicators are skills that can empower you and those you care for to stay SAFE by being able to spot violence...

BEFORE it happens.

Seats Are Limited. Reserve Yours Today: www.blackrhinogrp.com
