January/February 2017

Looking Back.....

The December luncheon is this writer's favorite of the year! While it is a festive season and the Yankee Swap lends a holiday note, the presence (pun intended) of our beneficiaries sets the tone. After a delicious turkey luncheon, each recipient gave a brief presentation on the work they do and how they provide help within our community. We are ever so privileged to be able to contribute the proceeds from our Bazaar and Auction to these worthy organizations.

Beneficiaries (left to right): Pam Perry and Lisa Lawler, from the Cape Cod Shelter and Domestic Violence Services; Brenda Swain from Falmouth Service Center; Ruth Provost, Boys and Girls Club, Lynne Waterman, Mashpee Council on Aging; and Kathleen Mulherin and Deb Journalist, St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry. Not shown is Sean Eagan from the Mashpee Scholarship Foundation Trust.

Still Looking Back.....

The rewards from our Annual Bazaar and Auction often continue. The “Day with a Mashpee Police Officer” was a very popular Live Auction item, and a 6-year-old boy enjoyed the day, compliments of his grandmother, who made the winning bid. All of the officers were warm and welcoming to Padraig. Chief Carline was there and made sure that Padraig had the best of everything! From his official swearing in, to delivering gifts to the elderly, and a genuine traffic stop in the patrol car, he had an authentic day as a police officer.

Our understanding is that Padraig’s grandfather, who accompanied him, had as much fun as his grandson.

Looking Ahead.....

Our creative Programs Committee, consisting of Nancy Noonan, Holly Hench, and Carol Chafetz are currently finalizing the monthly programs for 2017. They promise to be lively, informational, and entertaining.
