

Women's Club of New Seabury

September 2018

Looking Back.....

August was a busy month for the Women's Club of New Seabury. The girls of Summer enjoyed another Night Out in August. While looking out over the Sound, we listened to a talk by Liz Westwater from West Star Health and Healing on tarot card reading. The tarot reader can lead people to questions and the answers that might be found. There was also a talk of reducing stress in our lives, by Fran Meriot, and a demonstration for chair massage on a willing member, Yvonne Courtney. Discussion centered around reducing stress in our lives.

As always the small plates and liquid refreshments were delicious.

The Cape Cod Canal is not exactly a river but we were rollin' on it Sunday night August 12th

We outsmarted the weather and had NO rain. With a cool breeze out of the East we actually needed jackets and sweaters traveling toward Cape Cod Bay. Coming back toward Buzzards Bay the temp was perfect. Also perfect was the music provided by Ian Richardson, the food that Joe Fisher ordered from Roche Brothers, the raffle prizes and the friends (old and new) who gathered.

Definitely worth repeating next year!

Still Looking Back.....

THE MUSIC MAN

A group of 20-plus women attended our annual outing to High-field Theater to see a production of The Music Man.

A lively show with many favorite tunes was enthusiastically received by all. And we are always treated to homemade goodies by Kitty Gold.

Looking Ahead.....

Please see enclosed flyer for the annual bvFashion Show at the Poppy on Wednesday, September 12 at 11:30 am. Port Cargo will have fashions and accessories from the Mashpee store.

Please make your reservation by Wednesday, September 5. You can reserve a table for 10. Please contact Kitty Gold at 508 477 5106 or goldkatec@verizon.net with any questions.

Still Looking Ahead.....

For our October luncheon, plan for Tuesday, October 9. There will be a holiday appetizer demonstration. Details to follow.

And of course, mark your calendars for our annual Giving Fair on Tuesday, November 13. It promises to be as fun and exciting as last year!

The “We Care” Giving Fair and the WCNS Philanthropy

As the committee continues to work on the Giving Fair in November, we also want to remind our members of why we do this. All of the net proceeds go to the very deserving beneficiaries that the membership votes on in May.

Please go to our website: www.womensclubofnewseabury.com and click on the philanthropy tab to watch the videos of our beneficiaries expressing their thanks and appreciation as a result of WCNS’ contribution to their missions.

And finally, please read our recent scholarship recipient’s comments on her scholarship from WCNS.

Jane Beaudin, the Philanthropy Chair, presented the award of scholarship to Brianna Cheatham.

“I am so honored to have received the Women’s Club of New Seabury Scholarship. I will be able to use the funds of the scholarship to assist me in affording to attend Boston College. It truly means so much that you have invested in my future.”

Brianna Cheatham

Along with attending our Annual Giving Fair, please try to sell the Raffle Ticket booklet you received.

Please call Ann Marie Higgins at 508-477-0893 or am_higgins@yahoo.com if you need more booklets!

Sincere condolences to Ann Everett on the passing of her husband, Bob.

Women's Club of New Seabury cordially invites you
