March/April, 2018

Looking Back, . . . . .

Winter is finally in the rearview mirror, and thoughts of daffodils and green grass and fun in the sun are upon us.

Some thoughtful planning over the winter has gone into the WCNS schedule this year. There will be a presentation from the Woods Hole Oceanographic Institute; a possible canal cruise; a tarot card reading; as well as Girls Night Out; an outing to see a play; the Fashion Show, and of course, the WE CARE Giving Fair, which will be scheduled this year in the month of November. Stay tuned for more details.

Looking Ahead. . . . .

The April luncheon is in a different locale this year—the new Athletic Club Cafe at 60 Cross Road, New Seabury.

Chef Caleb Warr will demonstrate how to compose a healthy grain bowl and will prepare a few options for us to enjoy at lunch. The kitchen will assist in preparing both the soup and dessert of the three-course lunch to be served.

Chef Caleb is a Louisiana native who established himself as a creative cook in Charlottesville, VA over the past seven years. He has worked in critically acclaimed American, French, Vietnamese, Spanish, and Italian restaurants, and was awarded best chef of Charlottesville in 2017. Chef Caleb is now the chef at the Athletic Club.

Please see attached flyer and reply slip. Reservations must be made by April 3. Contact Kitty Gold at 508-477-5106.
