Looking Back.....

The April luncheon at the Poppy was a “welcome back” from Winter destinations, as well as an entertaining and thoughtful encouragement to continue one’s travels with a presentation by Mary Jo Gregory. After an ocean front dining experience enjoying lobster bisque, baked salmon, and apple tart for dessert, Mary Jo Gregory encouraged travelling for all it inspires. Her enthusiasm for the riches of travel was infectious. She encouraged people to be in AWE. See sunsets in different countries.

And it was delightful to see new members in attendance!

Looking Ahead.....

Please join us on Tuesday, May 14th for an English Tea Luncheon. We will welcome new members, as well as perhaps, toast to Prince Harry and Meghan’s new baby with a spot of tea! And we shall wish the Queen a belated Happy 93rd Birthday.

The featured speaker will be Ann Macdonald, the former owner of the Tea Shoppe (once in Mashpee Commons) and a current member of WCNS. She will discuss the history of tea and the afternoon tea service.

There will also be an election of officers for the next two year term.

If tea is your thing, you might enjoy reading The Tea Girl of Hummingbird Lane. It will not be discussed at the luncheon, but it is a winding, intriguing tale of loss and love entwined with the ancient practice of tea growing in China .

Please see attached flyer and make your reservation by May 7.
