

Women's Club of New Seabury

September 2019

Looking Back, . . . . .

The August luncheon and author event held at the Country Club was a terrific occasion. Joan Anderson, author of "A Year by the Sea" as well as several other books, spoke with humor and grace about living an authentic life. She said that women are the carriers of culture and do so much for others that they often forget about their own journey through life. She was funny, self-deprecating, and full of wisdom for all of us. The audience had lots of questions and Ms. Anderson ended her terrific program with a drawing for the beautiful centerpieces and her book, Stretch Marks.

Looking Ahead.....

As Summer slides into Autumn, WCNS looks forward to its annual Fashion Show. Plan to attend with friends and family for this year's array of fashions from Cape Chic of Falmouth.

After the luncheon, the models will walk and twirl on the runway to give us all ideas about the latest Fall fashions. Mark your calendar and see flyer on the next page to make your reservation.
