What Tea Should Taste Like.

Our tea is made from the freshest rolled whole leaves—two leaves and a bud from the top of the plant, gently rolled and dried. Rolling tea leaves, rather than chopping them into dust, helps them keep all of their flavour and natural oils, giving a great tasting tea with no bitterness.

Ordinary ingredients, extraordinary taste.

Nothing comes close to the taste of our UK grown oats. We've spent 20 years working with our farmers to make the creamiest porridges you can find, blended with real fruit pieces.
