

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Trauma Response Systems® Named Authorized Sales Channel for Safeguard Medical™ Now Offering their RAMPART™ Color Coded Trauma System to Law Enforcement, EMS, and Hospitals Statewide

Atlanta, GA — December 9, 2025 — Trauma Response Systems, an emerging leader in Operational Medicine consulting, tactical medical training and equipment, is proud to announce that it has been named as an authorized sales channel for Safeguard Medical. This agreement brings another proven product line available for purchase by law enforcement agencies, EMS providers, and companies seeking rapid, effective solutions for life-threatening injuries in the field or the office.

“As a tactical medic, I used Safeguard Medical supplies like Battle Wrap™, Celox™ Rapid Ribbon, Battle Bandage™ among their other products while treating field injuries during SWAT operations,” said Thomas McAfee, Founder and CEO of Trauma Response Systems.

This partnership ensures that Trauma Response System customers will have trusted access to Safeguard Medical products, along with expert guidance, training, and support.
