

“The Belief Song”

By Bruce Seidman
& Stevenson Brooks
©, © 2009 Bruce Seidman
& Stevenson Brooks

| C#m | E | C#m | A B :||

My power, inside of me
All the strength
All the courage
It's just me who cannot see

My mind, is always listening
To the things I do
To the things I say
Sometimes something's missing

| E | E | A | E | E | B | E |

I can when I think I can,
I'm more than I think I am,
I can when I think I can,
I am, I am, I am.

Do I know how powerful my mind is?
The things that I can do,
The things that I can say

The old me, a victim of other victims
Sleepwalking
Never talking
Not knowing where to begin

But no more! You can't talk in to me!
I say, wake up
I say, listen up
I can choose what I believe

Chorus

Now only I, speak in to me
Only the true
Only the good

Only what I want to see

And I, I get to decide
I believe I'm noble,
I'm brave
Whatever makes me feel alive?!

Chorus

I shine even brighter,
My gifts sparkle like stars,
Spilling on to you
So that you will sparkle too

So good, each morning when I wake
New beliefs
I put them in
Day after day,
for all my days on earth

Chorus x2
(Group Chorus)

C#m

E

A

B