Farncombe Community Garden - taster session

Friday 15th May from 10am to 12noon

A free, supported taster morning for autistic / neurodivergent adults

Gill and Laura (see middle picture above) from the Autism by Experience team will be at the garden from 10am to welcome people.

Farncombe Community Garden, Summers
Road, Farncombe, Godalming, GU7 3BF

A 13 minute walk from Farncombe train station.
The entrance to the garden is located directly opposite Broadwater Secondary School.

Details of the meet up

- This meet-up would suit people who are keen to connect with others, who may enjoy gardening, or simply enjoy the calm, quiet environment of the gardens. It's okay to bring a supporter.
- You are welcome to just come and have a look around, or do some gardening.
- The garden has a free car park, available during open sessions
- More information about the garden is on their website www.farncombecommunitygarden.org
- We've included some pages from the garden's visual story on pages 2 to 3 of this flyer

If you would like want more information you can email us. No need to register in advance, you can just turn up on the day. Email Gill@autismbyexperience.co.uk

Getting here:

Travel: We are a 13 minute walk from Farncombe train station.

Location: The entrance to the garden is located directly opposite Broadwater Secondary School and adjacent to Broadwater Lodge Care Home.

Parking: We have a free car park, available during open sessions;

- Wednesdays 1pm to 3pm.
- Fridays 10am to 12 noon.
- Saturdays 10am to 12 noon.

If the car park is full, there is free on-street parking along Summers Road.

When you arrive:

Whether walking or driving, go through the big green gates into the car park. There is a big banner on the fence and a blackboard outside the gate which says 'Open' during open sessions.
