"Remembering Jesus' Birth - What if..."

Imagine what life would be like without our family members or dear friends or even modern conveniences, which in the "Kenyan Bush" doesn't require imagination! That void causes an appreciation to well up in our hearts for those who are so important to us.

That famous, old, Jimmy Stewart, Christmas movie, "It's a Wonderful Life" gives us a fictional look at what life in the town of Bedford Falls would be like if George Bailey had never been born. Instead of Bedford Falls and George Baily, let's take a minute to think about Bethlehem and Yeshua-Jesus. What if... the world was still waiting for the Messiah to be born? What would it be like? Where would we be? How would we be?

If Yeshua-Jesus had not yet been born, He would have not yet gone to the cross to suffer for our sins. We would still be lost in our sins requiring the sacrifices of bulls, sheep and goats, and the writer of Hebrews tells us, "For it is not possible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins." (Hebrews 10:4) We would be living without hope of eternal life, and we would be waiting.

The Holy Spirit would have not yet been sent on the Day of Pentecost. There would be no Church nor gifts of the Spirit. No Church apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, nor teachers. Our lives would not yet be filled with the fruit of the Holy Spirit. We would be selfishly living for ourselves.

Oh... but He was born in Bethlehem! Oh... but He did die for our sin! Oh... but we are the Church and we have been given the Holy Spirit and we do have hope of eternal life!

Luke 2:25-32:

There was a man in Jerusalem named Simeon. He was righteous and devout and was eagerly waiting for the Messiah to come and rescue Israel. The Holy Spirit was upon him and had revealed to him that he would not die until he had seen the Lord's Messiah. That day the Spirit led him to the Temple. So, when Mary and Joseph came to present the baby Jesus to the Lord as the law required, Simeon was there. He took the child in his arms and praised God, saying, "Sovereign Lord, now let your servant die in peace, as you have promised. I have seen your salvation, which you have prepared for all people. He is a light to reveal God to the nations, and he is the glory of your people Israel!"

As we remember Yeshua-Jesus' birth, let us celebrate with renewed joy and appreciation!
