The Kipsing Story

There is an area in the Samburu County of Kenya that is not yet reached with the Gospel. You may remember 2 years ago the JFM Kiwanja Ndege Church was sharing the gospel at the bi-monthly market. Two Samburu men from Kipsing heard the gospel that day and became believers in Jesus-Yeshua.

For 2 years JFM has been trying to open a church in Kipsing.

First there was tribal fighting in the area preventing us from going in. Then the much needed rains began and made the roads impassible.

Our Mighty God Turns Evil to Good!

On April 10th, 2018 we received a call from Pastor Ruben that a group of Samburu youth had stolen his brother's cattle (it sounds like the wild-west but it is an all too common occurrence).

Ruben and some policemen set out tracking the cattle and met a Samburu family who was very sick. One woman had died and one mother couldn't even feed her baby. Just then some men came and said the cattle had been spotted.

Amid gunfire Ruben went in and retrieved his brother's cattle. Returning to the sick family Ruben prayed for healing and shared the gospel. The family believed in Jesus-Yeshua! Shortly after leaving, Ruben received a call that they were healed and the mother was feeding her baby.

When the Village Chief heard the news, he requested JFM to come plant a church.

He gave JFM a good stone building to use!

The village?

You guessed it...

KIPSING!!!

No struggling to find a meeting place...

No struggle erecting a building...

Our Mighty God knew what he was doing all along! Turning bad to good is his specialty!

He turned me... What about you?

Praise and Thanksgiving

Thanking God for 571 Bibles!

The Holy Spirit has directed Voice of the Martyrs (V.O.M.) to help JFM with Bibles!!! Our first day back in Kenya we headed straight to the Bible Society and ordered Maasai, Swahili, Pokot and English Bibles, 571 Bibles! The Maasai pastors were so happy that their members will now have Bibles! Thank you V.O.M! God bless you all!

Praising our Father for safety and provision during our recent USA trip

What an amazing 2 months in the USA visiting some of the churches and friends that help JFM work in Kenya. We had a wonderful JFM board meeting in Springfield MO at Pastor Sherry Cox's home. The Holy Spirit's power and presence was leading us. It is always a great joy to see family before we head back to Kenya. Mom and Dad Freese were doing well and we returned to find Mom and Dad Price also doing well. We thank the Lord!
