Thanking God for His Goodness - November 2019

WHEN CHILDREN HELP CHILDREN - FROM SAN DIEGO TO CHUMVI KENYA!

When children help children the story just has to be told!

When Mike & Cheryl came from Kenya to attend Grandparent's Day at the School of the Madeleine, their granddaughter Abigail's teacher, Mrs. Pacheco, saw a clip of the JFM school in Kenya. She suggested to the principal, Mrs. Coleman, that their school's student fundraiser be designated for the building of a much-needed cooking station for these Kenyan children. Mrs. Coleman agreed.

A flyer was made, and Abigail began going to each classroom to share with her schoolmates about the kitchen project and her grandparent's mission in Kenya.

The day came for the special Jeans Day fundraiser. Mrs. Coleman couldn't believe it! This was the most money ever raised on Jeans Day... over $1000! A special fuel-efficient wood-cooking stove, counter, storage shelves and washing station were constructed for the JFM School in Kenya!

Abigail and Fletcher's grandparents, Mike & Cheryl Freese, and all the children at the Jesus Frees Ministries school want to say a big asante sana... that's Swahili for "thank you very much" to the principal, teachers, parents and especially the students for all your help!

God bless you all
so very much!

The Jesus Frees Ministries
School in Kenya says:

ON NOVEMBER 2,
2019 THREE JFM
PASTORS FROM WESTERN KENYA RECEIVED THEIR DEGREE IN BIBLICAL STUDIES. What a great graduation celebration!
Beautiful singing and dancing by a local choir, festive Kenyan food and the Word of God!

Before leaving Western Kenya, a few hours were set aside to see Lake Victoria. It was the first time Pastor Dave and Pastor Ruben had ever been in a boat. A memorable trip indeed!
