The Nadung'oro Church is Birthed...

In the last JFM News letter we shared about the village of Nadung'oro located on the boarder of the Maasai tribe and the Samburu tribe. After 2-1/2 years of praying for doors to open, last month JFM's tent went to Nadung'oro for a week-long outreach.

Each day 200-500 people came for the services and each day lives were changed for eternity!

Thank You for Praying!!! 84 Commitments to Christ!!!

It was amazing!!! At this meeting the Chief and his wife were among those who surrendered their lives to the King of kings and Lord of lords!

It was so exciting to meet together the next week to worship the Lord!

109 were there for that dedication service and a woman named Margaret Mureiyani and a community elder committed their lives to Jesus! The construction has only begun on this Nadung'oro church building but everyone is so thankful for a place to meet!

Margaret Mureiyani received Jesus-the Word and also the written Word!

A big "THANK YOU" to V.O.M. (Voice of the Martyrs) for their commitment to help JFM get Bibles into the hands of the Kenyan people!
May God receive glory and honor as the Living Word is hidden in their hearts!
