APPLICATION FOR WELFARE SUPPORT FUNDS

The Colonel John Haynes Trust supports current and former members of the Royal Australian Armoured Corps (RAAC) and their immediate family through provision of welfare assistance.

Financial grants for immediate welfare support may be made at any time. Applicants are encouraged to make contact via email or telephone to ensure that the request has been received and is being processed as soon as possible.

Applications may be made directly by the applicant or on behalf of a beneficiary.

To be eligible, a beneficiary must meet one of the following criteria and be able to provide supporting evidence:

- Is a serving or ex-serving member of the Royal Australian Armoured Corps, whether Regular, Reserve or National Service members of the Corps; or*
- Is an immediate family member of a serving or ex-serving member to two generations (eg: spouse, widow/widower, child/ step-child and grand-children)*

An application must include contact details of a referee nominated by the applicant who is required to provide a declaration regarding the information provided.

In addition, applicants are required to provide details of any government financial assistance and any funding or support provided by other entities. The application must also include specific details of the expense for which funding will be used

Where an application is successful and a grant has been provided to the beneficiary, there is a requirement to provide evidence that the funds have been used for the intended purpose.

Completed applications, with supporting documents, are to be printed, signed, scanned and sent via email to enquiries@haynestrust.org
