THE SWAP MAGAZINE

Volume 3
Summer 2026

Photography by Nguyen Creative
FASHION

Reclaiming What Was Always Mine

by Porsha Solomon

Reclaimed Essence isn't a brand I created. It's a truth I finally named.

THE SWAP LOOK BOOK

SUMMER MUSIC LINEUP

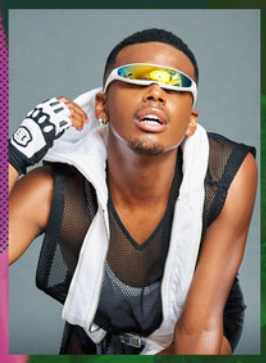

Evening Star
@eveningstarmusic

How would you describe yourself?
We are Detroit Indie soul with roots in Jazz and Neo-Soul. We write a lot of original material as well as play exciting medleys of songs both known and loved. Just plain good Music

How do you express your personal style in your music and performances?
Our style is very cathartic with beats that compel you to move and artful melodies and lyrics that touch your core.

DUANE GHOLSTON
@duane_313

How would you describe yourself?
Gay ghettotech pop

How do you express your personal style in your music and performances?
I werk, I serve

V Da Queen
@v__daqueen

How would you describe yourself?
I describe my music as emotionally vulnerable chaos

How do you express your personal style in your music and performances?
I love a good baggy pants and loose top, however every once in a while, I like to go full into my feminine energy with some floral accents

Breezeomatic
Band Handle: @Breezeomatic

How would you describe yourself?
I make eclectic dj sets. I love traveling between genres and chilling with the crowd. I love the feeling of playing that one song that wakes up the sleepy person in the corner.

How do you express your personal style in your music and performances?
I dress like the black character from an extreme sports video game lol...Its also important to me to also make sure my equipment is set up in a clean,

Blackmoore
@sirblackmoore

How would you describe yourself?
Musically I am an experimental trip hop and jungle artist. I like to incorporate elements of glitch and error into my music. I like for my music to feel either like a dream or a good abstract vibe.

How do you express your personal style in your music and performances?
That's tricky to answer. I love analogue technology, modern technology, a chill urban aesthetic, and good energy. I also have a strong sense of rebellion and nonconformity that shows up in all of my art. I do a lot of things unconventionally and through a creative lens and I believe it shows.