Baseball Team Dream

Last night I had a dream. In the dream I was playing baseball on a team. Our uniforms were mainly white but had red trim. As we played, our uniforms would get dirty and we would wash them often. One of the guys on the team delivered uniforms to people. He said the trick to getting the garments clean is to wash them as soon as they got dirty. If they waited too long it was more difficult to clean. Another person on the team had a wrecker service. He was using the wrecker to move idols out of the park where we were at.

The verse John 14:6 was brought to my remembrance. "Jesus *said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me."End of dream.

America Dream

This morning I had a dream. In the dream I saw a red and white vertical striped box. When I opened the box it started to play this:

"America, America, our country tis of the, full of brotherhood, of all people, it is a melting pot of sin. My land has become an abomination on this earth. It has become more than I can bear to see. My anger burns against it, with ultimate fury. I will destroy America with the rest of the world but not until I rise up my faithful remnant which is housed in her. I shall gather my people to me and as a mother eagle, I will put them under my great wing of protection. Although time seems short, I will give a reprieve to allow my work to be completed in America. The days are short and the time has come to fight for me in the trenches of democracy. You are to oppose, my children, at every turn and will be a stumbling block to all their ways. But I stand against them just as I have for centuries. They try so hard but they have not figured out that they are defeated before they even start, just like the serpent of old. My anger burns brighter and brighter as they fight against my remnant and my anger will be contained little more. Rise up my people and sanctify yourselves. Throw off the sins of the land and unite in holy prayer which helps to throw off the stench of the sin of the land. Consecrate yourselves for the most holy day which is just around the corner. Make straight your paths for I am a holy and just God and I will have mercy on those who know my Son Jesus with a pure heart. Do not dispar My remnant, Jesus loves you and so do I. If it were not so I would have destroyed you a long time ago. Be holy for I am holy and I will set you on a hill as a light to the world only do not delay. Your time grows short and your task list runs long.

Do not fear the one who can kill the body but fear the one who can kill the soul. I am proud to be called your father. Worship Me and Me alone for evermore. “

When this stopped playing I looked up and I was sitting on the starboard side of a boat in the shade with the sun radiating down from above and the seas were calm. The boat was a head boat that was all white and I was wearing an all white suit. The boat then went by Ellis island and I could see the Statue of Liberty. Just then a huge lightning bolt came from the sky and struck the statue at the left side of the base and it fell to the left into the water extinguishing liberty's flame. The boat continued sailing toward the south. I saw ripples in the water like something was coming toward me. Then I heard a loud noise of metal hitting metal. As the boat continued to sail along I heard a loud boom behind the boat and saw a large plum of water spraying into the air. Soon after, the boat was beached on the land. I then saw a huge green combine. The size of the head was 2 states wide and it started driving west across America and began going back and forth. End of dream.

This morning I had a dream. In the dream I saw a small country church on a small acreage with evergreen trees surrounding the property like a hedge to hide it from view. I then looked and saw the evergreens were now brown and 3/4 of them from the road side was gone. I also saw the same property without the building and the same thing occurred.

God is declaring that the church system is being exposed and has little protection left. Ever what protection is left is already dead and will be removed soon. Conversely, the true church has been hidden and as the church system is exposed the true church will be recognized. The time for both to happen is soon and will occur at the same time.
