This morning I had a dream. In the dream I was watching a person in a house. They got a child and put them in a tunnel inside the house. Once they were out of sight I saw a brilliant flash of light and the house collapsed and caught fire and fell into and covered the tunnel entrance. The fire was extremely intense and almost consumed the house instantly. End of dream.

Sandfly dream

This morning I has a dream. In the dream I was looking for a sandfly. At first I was looking in the beaches in America but could not find any as I sifted through the sand. Then I was in a middle eastern country. I kept looking for the sandfly near water but could not find it. I then went to a city in the desert and was looking. It was now twilight. I went to a round pit with a wall about 2 and a half feet tall. Inside the pit at the center was a metal pot that was white with decorative holes around the sides and lid. A light smoke was coming out of it. I took a branch and moved the lid partially to the side. I then put more wood in it and moved the lid back on top A middle eastern man was watching from a distance and came to inspect once I had finished. He said nothing. I believe this was used to lure the mysterious sand fly. Just then the guy who was there asked if I had found what I was looking for. I replied no. At that moment a huge earthquake struck so that it was difficult to stand up. I then saw what looked like a golden statue of a sandfly rise vertically from the earth. It appeared to be about 8 feet tall and was intricately detailed. Then all of a sudden the wings started to move and the sandfly took flight. I then looked around and there were hundreds that had come up out of the sand and were taking flight. They all headed the same direction. I had the feeling this was a pestilence on the earth to harass those who do not have the seal of God. One bite from these flies would leave a welt a foot in diameter. End of dream.

Contract for sin

This morning I had a dream. In the dream I was at a restaurant like McDonald's. I met with a guy that wanted me to sign papers for him. I did, but noticed a problem with some of the papers. I then decided to destroy the papers by voiding them because they were wrong. The guy that was having me sign the papers was mad when he found out. He got up to leave I started to void them out. Another man came and shot the person sitting across from me at the table 2 times in the hip area and killed him. I knew he was there to kill me. As he turned and looked at me I prayed to God to protect me. The man tried to raise his arm with the gun to point it at me but he could not. His arm was restrained by the Lord. End of dream.

Wagon Train Dream Revisited

I had a dream just over a year ago on December 28, 2020 that God reminded me of:

This morning I had a dream. In the dream I saw what looked like a modern day wagon train. It was overcast cloudy and rainy the entire time. It was also cold outside and puddles would freeze at night. At one point it was reported a child fell off the wagon train into a deep puddle, but they rescued the child. I was there as guide and helped to ensure people were getting to where they needed to be. I also remembered a word God gave me awhile back about 2 years. At one point we passes a town and the sheriffs came out to keep us moving and not entering and keep us moving on. We eventually made it to my current bosses furniture store where the people received comfort and shelter. This happened over a period of 2 days or two time periods

Trump as King Dream

This morning I had a dream. In the dream I saw Donald Trump installed as king over the United States of America. He then began to rule over the subjects of the land. I had the feeling he was an evil king in the sight of the Lord. At one point I saw him extend a gold scepter out to a person so they were allowed to be near him. The people of the nation were very confused by this and were just wandering around questioning it but doing nothing. End of dream.
