

April 10, 2023 Word

My people, my people the time has come. My people my people are you prepare for what's to come. Little time is left and much work is yet to do. Draw near to me as I draw near to you. So much is to come so quickly it will be. So much it will be overwhelming unless you are dedicated to me. Come my people draw close to me now. For the time has come. No more preparation. You have what you have and you must move forward. Listen to my every word, my every command. The days of darkness have come. But you are my light children, you are the light in this world. Continue to shine brightly as I move forward. You will shine brighter and brighter as the darkness grows darker. In this time I will be your God and you will be my people. And you will move forward in victory because I am with you. My angels surround you. I will make it happen my children. Rely on me. The time has come to be victorious in me just as my son was on the cross. You my people will be victorious. Only hold close to me as I am the key to the future. I am your resurrection and your life. Abide in me my people and I will make you fishers of men. I thank you my people for listening and focusing on me. Do not lose that, in the days ahead. Do not lose your focus. Do not lose your balance. I will be there to catch you, but I can only do so much. You also have to partner with me in this time. Reach out to me. Grab ahold of me and hold on tightly, and I will lead you through. My people, I love you. You will do great. Continue in what you do.

A word spoken at Passover celebration 4/5/2023 just after sunset.

This is what the Lord says, "I am the Lord God Almighty, maker of heaven and earth. This is my day, where I gather my people together and prepare them for the journey ahead. The journey will be long. It will be treacherous, but I will be with you. My angels will escort you and you will be protected. The route will have many dangers, but do not fear, for I am with you. I will be your provision in the days ahead. I will be your guide in the days ahead, just like I did for Israel. I was a pillar of fire by night and a cloud by day so they know where to go and what to do. I will lead you my people. But do not be dismayed at what you see. Many terrible things will be happening all around. Those who don't know me will perish, and those who are faint of heart will pass away.

But fear not, all is well, if you know me, it all leads to me, that's where the road goes, nowhere else. The journey is just beginning, but don't worry it won't take as long as you think. But time is running out. The time that people have been waiting for is here. The journey has begun.
