- Passion or Purpose: What I Wished Someone Told Me Before I Got to College
- The Root of the Problem: Root Chakra Exploration, Tools, & Tips
- The Truth About Shadow Work

I founded Fondove Healing with this intention: provide support for women to come home to their true selves. By speaking with women and young girls alike about the importance of integration post-healing it opens the door for perspective shifts to ensue. My style is interactive, intentional and inclusive. By blending life experience and spiritual teachings I challenge my audience to expand their mind and reclaim their personal power.
