

HOPE IN THE HEARTLAND

Kansas Quarter Horse Association

September 24-27, 2026 • Stormont Vail Events Center • Topeka, Kansas • 8:00 a.m.

Join KQHA for four days of AQHA and Versatility Ranch Horse competition. Hope in the Heartland features four judges, two full slates of AQHA Ranch, Working Cow Horse and Halter classes, two full slates of VRH classes, and over $5,500 in added money.

THE TRADITION - THREE FEATURED EVENTS

All Tradition events are open to all breeds.

The Tradition Aged Event Derby

$1,500 Added Money and Prizes • Saturday only • For 3-, 4- and 5-year-old horses • Ranch Cutting, Ranch Riding and Conformation • Entry fee: $75 plus cattle fee.

The Tradition Ranch Horse Invitational

$2,000 Added Money • Friday only • Limited to no more than 20 contestants • Ranch Riding, Working Western Rail and Boxing • AQHA VRH rules and AQHA VRH All-Around system used to determine Champion • Entry fee: $200 plus cattle fee.

The Tradition Ranch Riding Sweepstakes

$2,000 Added Money • Ranch Riding • Entry fee: $75 plus cattle fee.

SHOW HIGHLIGHTS & INFORMATION

Judges: Mark Guynn, Steve Brown, Jamieson Gross and Morgan Lybbert

All Weekend Entry Fee: $395; exclusions apply as listed on the official showbill.

Stalls: $150/weekend

Health Requirement: Current Coggins tests are required for all horses competing at the show.

CONTACT

Stall Reservations: Diane Gage • dmgage@live.com • (316) 737-3309

Show Information: kqhaoffice@gmail.com

Website: www.KQHA.com

Come join us for Hope in the Heartland and The Tradition!