

The St Louie Woman
2004 KQHA Hall of Fame Inductee

1976 Chestnut Mare

Sire: Shade Parr

Dam: Pickring Tribars

Breeder: CW Pickring, Manhattan, KS

Owner: Dolly Anderson, White City, KS

The St Louie Woman had an AQHA show career spanning 7 years in which she was one of the winningest horses shown under an English saddle. In open competition she earned a total of 12 all arounds with 2 hunter under saddle, 161.5 jumping, 43.5 hunter hack, and 143.5 working hunter points. She earned the honor roll high point jumping award in 1985, 1986 & 1990 with top 10 placings in 1988 & 1987. She was shown in open classes at the world show earning a 3rd, a reserve, a 4th in jumping and a reserve, 4th and 8th in working hunter. In amateur competition at the world show she earned a world championship, and a 5th in jumping and in working hunter she earned a 9th, 6th, 6th, 3rd, 5th and a 10th.

After retiring from the show ring "Sally" became a broodmare and produced several performers for her owner.

Pennys Rocky
2004 KQHA Hall of Fame Inductee

1963 Roan Gelding

Sire: Chiles' Rocky

Dam: Bobs Best

Breeder: Taylor A Tenpenny, Topeka, KS

Owner: Jackie Van Petten, Meriden, KS

Penny's Rocky was the epitome of an all around performer. In the open division he was the earner of an AQHA championship with 10 Grand Champions, 8 Reserve Champions, 42 halter, 38.5 pole bending, 2 western pleasure, 121 barrel race and 7 reining points. In 1970 he ended the year in 7th place in the honor roll barrel race standings. In youth classes he earned a youth AQHA championship with 12 Grand Champions, 24 halter, 28 showmanship, 35 pole bending, 1 reining, 4 western pleasure, 88 barrel race, 2 stake race and 1 western riding points. He was shown by his owner Jackie Baker van Petten at the youth world in 1973 and 1974 earning an 8th & 10th place in barrel racing and a 5th place in stake racing.