Motion for Summary Judgement with Injunctive & Monetary Relief (Tertiary)

NOW COMES the plaintiff, Thomas C. Fernandez, Pro Se, and as their Motion for Summary Judgment with Injunctive and Monetary Relief, states as follows.

Due to the all-encompassing medical malpractice on the defendant’s part, including causing the plaintiff’s divorce, and per Illinois legislation, Plaintiff moves for Summary Judgment with Injunctive and Monetary Relief.

Injunctive Relief Sought

The plaintiff requests three injunctions.

First: That the court should impose an immediate order against the defendant, in the form of restraints on their marketing, promotional, internet advertising, or any other publicly available materials provided to patients, peers, suppliers and etc. The restraints must include prohibitions against using the words in any form of, “Christian Counseling”, or “Mental Health”, or any derivative of these statements.

Second: As a stipulation of Steve Lee's continued employment, that a whiteboard with a minimum size of 36"x48", be installed in the lobby/entry way, in full view of the clinic's patients, and that Steve will complete in legible handwriting, not doctors script, the following written parable, every Monday morning...

"I will not weaponize my patient's medication, or their families against them.

I will not triple my patient's medication after major injuries, in the hopes that they won't remember all of the broken bones, and broken promises.

I will not threaten, incapacitate, or coerce my patients, either with medication mismanagement, lack of informed consent, hospitalization, medication increases, or determining a course of treatment without consulting them.

I will not blame my patient's mental health, when it is blatantly obvious after the fourth (4) incident, that the cause is my medication mismanagement.

I will NOT INTENTIONALLY AND FOR ENJOYMENT, cause my patient's divorce.

If I do cause my patient's divorce, I will not incapacitate them, place them under the threat of medication increase, and hospitalization, and I will not try to blame them for it by either lying to their families or working with their families to cover up my all-encompassing screw ups to save my job, and my license.

I will not make ASSHOLE PSYCHOPATHIC statements towards my patients, while they are suffering from inappropriate weening from medication, which I refused to prescribe, like, 'be careful how you talk to your ex-wife', FOR STATEMENTS THAT I MADE TO MY PATIENTS EX-WIFE.

I will at all times LISTEN TO MY PATIENTS AND NOT COERCE THEM OUT OF THEIR HOMES, THEIR LIVES, AND THEIR MARRIAGES, AND LAUGH ABOUT IT, because it's extremely expensive when they get back up from my all-encompassing medical malpractice, lack of informed consent, medication mismanagement, threats, coercion, lies, misstatements, misquotes, attempted murder, all-encompassing fraud, and incapacitation."

Steve will sign this statement with “The Stevil Weasel”. This statement must be rewritten, EVERY Monday, for the duration of his employment, in an attempt to impart some personal responsibility, ethical reminders, and moral balance.

Third: That mandatory continuing professional education in the fields of ethics training be completed on a monthly basis, by all employees of Meier Clinic.

Monetary Relief Sought

That the plaintiff seeks monetary relief in the form of reimbursement for damages incurred due to the defendant’s actions, at an amount not less than 75% of damages and future liabilities incurred, with all attorney’s, court, and filing fees to be paid by the defendant. An Affidavit of Damages (financial) has been provided to this court.

Wherefore, Plaintiff requests that this honorable Court grants this motion for summary judgement with relief.
