

A young man with dark, curly hair is sitting in a black office chair in a cluttered office. He is wearing a dark, long-sleeved shirt and dark trousers. He is looking directly at the camera with a neutral expression. The office is filled with various items: a red fire extinguisher is on the floor to the left, a computer monitor is on a desk to the left, and a desk lamp is on the desk in front of him. The background features several shelves filled with books and boxes. The overall lighting is dim, with a warm, slightly greenish tint.
