

Lead Agent

Emily Gilders

Emily Gilders is the Lead Sales Agent for Champine Realty Group and a powerhouse in Milwaukee-area real estate. Known for her strategic mindset and high-energy approach, Emily brings a rich background in relationship-driven business and operations to the team.

Prior to her real estate career, Emily spent years as a top-performing staffing manager and Director at Robert Half, where she developed a sharp eye for matching people with opportunity. She later led the successful launch of Serendipity Labs in Wauwatosa—building a vibrant, co-working space through her expansive network and magnetic leadership.

Education

- University of Minnesota - Journalism and Public Relations

Professional Affiliations

- National Association of REALTORS
- Great Milwaukee Associations of Realtors
- Committee Chair - Leukemia and Lymphoma Society
- Visionary of the Year - Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, 2024, 2025
- Wauwatosa Schools Advocate and PTA member

Emily's clients benefit from her deep market knowledge, instinctive negotiation skills, and genuine passion for helping people find the perfect fit—whether buying their first home or making a strategic move. With a vast local network and commitment to service, she's the kind of agent who turns clients into lifelong friends.

Personal Interests

- Camping
- Spending time with family
- Community engagement
- Traveling
- Dog Lover

Outside of real estate, Emily is deeply involved in her community, actively serving on the PTA and supporting the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. She lives in the Wauwatosa area with her husband Brad and their son Colin, finding balance in motherhood, community, and the fast-paced world of real estate.