

Lead Agent

Rachel Reinhart

Rachel Reinhart brings a rare blend of artistic vision and market savvy to her role as a Milwaukee-based Realtor with Champagne Realty Group. With a specialty in vintage homes and historic charm, Rachel guides her clients through buying and selling with an eye for design and a heart for community.

Before transitioning into real estate, Rachel built a successful career in the fashion industry as a designer—an experience that sharpened her instincts for aesthetics, storytelling, and consumer trends. Her creative journey expanded into freelance product photography, where she helped brands capture the essence of their products with stunning visuals and attention to detail.

Rachel's ability to elevate every listing through thoughtful styling and marketable presentation sets her apart in a competitive landscape. Her Instagram, @ourlittletosahouse, has become a beloved destination for home inspiration, design tips, and snapshots of her life in Wauwatosa. She's been featured in publications like Apartment Therapy, MyDomaine, and Hunker Home, where her unique approach to vintage home living has inspired a national audience.

Rachel is proud to serve Milwaukee's vibrant communities and is passionate about connecting people to the homes—and neighborhoods—they'll love for years to come.

Education

- BA, Apparel and Textile Design, Michigan State University
- AAS, Fashion Design, Fashion Institute of Technology

Professional Affiliations

- National Association of REALTORS
- Great Milwaukee Associations of Realtors
- Wauwatosa Historical Society

Personal Interests

- Thrifting - ask me what spots I love!
- Historical Homes
- Interior Design
- Watercolor Painting