ILLINOIS - INDIANA - KENTUCKY - MICHIGAN - OHIO - WISCONSIN

Date: March 15, 2020
From: Phil Zamora, National Vice Commandant, Central Division
To: Central Division membership
Subject: 2020 Central Division Conference

Members: After consultation with the six Department Commandants, Assistant National Vice Commandant, National Vice President Central Division and the host Detachment Chairman it has been decided that the 2020 Central Division Conference in Louisville, Kentucky will be cancelled.

It was a hard choice that was made. The Kentuckiana Detachment and Bob Cross put so much time and effort in making sure this conference was a huge success; but, because of the current state of the Covid-19 virus we all had to make this choice.

PLEASE make sure all members that have a reservation with the hotel calls the hotel ASAP and cancels their reservation. Also, give it about a week or two before the detachment refunds your money for the conference. They have lots of checks to write so have patience.

While we are on the subject of the Covid-19, Coronavirus or whatever you want to call it, the National Headquarters will have reduced staff on hand for at least a month, PLEASE HAVE PATIENCE while we go through this together, I will attach COO Bob Borka's email.

I wish this didn't have to happen, but we all thought it was for the good of the Central Division membership who were attending the conference.

I myself will hopefully see all of you at your Department Conventions soon.
