City of Wagoner Still Accepting Applications for 2026 Summer Internship Program

The City of Wagoner is still accepting applications for our 2026 Summer Internship Program for high school juniors and seniors during the 2025–2026 school year. This is a 6 week program, running from June 1 through July 3, 2026. It is designed to offer hands-on experience in local government, mentorship from city professionals, networking opportunities and the chance to earn school credit and community service hours. Applications are due April 10, 2026, with interviews completed by April 27, 2026. Students may pick up a physical application at City Hall or from their school counselor. Here is a link to print and return the application to City Hall

City of Tulsa (Wagoner County) Project Anthem (Data Center) UPDATE:

Project Anthem developer asks to postpone Planning Commission hearing until April 1

Kevin Canfield

The developer of Project Anthem, a massive data center planned for construction on 340 acres in east Tulsa, plans to ask the Tulsa Metropolitan Area Planning Office to continue until April 1 a hearing on proposed rezoning changes needed to expand the project.

The hearing had been scheduled for Wednesday.

Planning Commission staff was notified Friday of the developer's intent to seek the continuation. Commissioners will vote on that request Wednesday.

A representative for Project Anthem was not available for comment Friday.

When the case is heard, the Planning Commission will provide a recommendation to the City Council, which has the final say on rezoning requests.

The original application submitted to the Planning Commission included two requests: to rezone the 375 acres from agriculture to industrial light, and to change the property's designation in the city's comprehensive plan from neighborhood to employment.

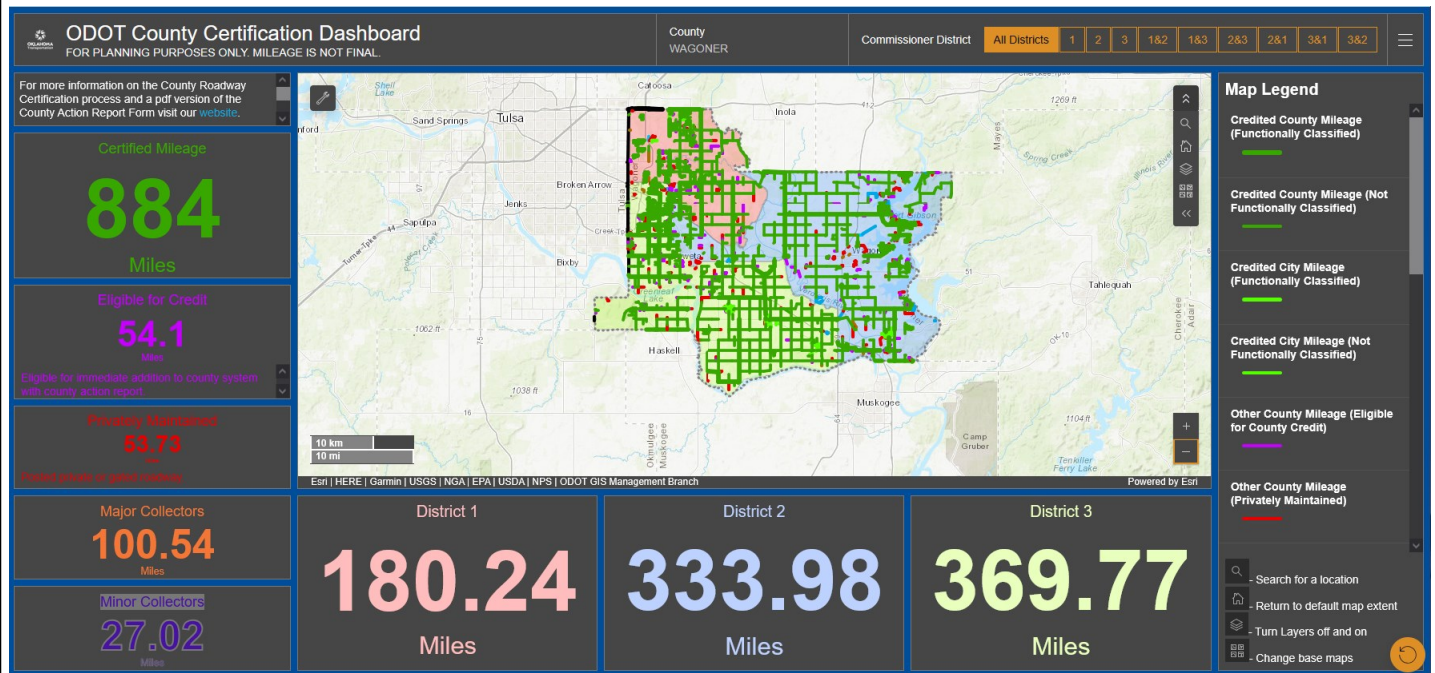

The reason for the rezoning requests is to construct another data center, according to the application.

The property is directly west of the 340-acre site on which the original Project Anthem data center is to be built.

The developer's request to postpone the hearing comes just two days after city councilors discussed whether to impose a 365-day moratorium on the construc.....
