

Ladybird Class home activities

The story for this week is The Little Red Hen.

Read the story together if you have the book at home, or you can find it using the following link.

Talk with your child about how important it is to help other people. Link it to the story whereby sometimes, if you help someone when you don't really want to, there might be treat as a reward. See if you can get your child to help you with some cooking or cleaning or tidying.

Have a go at baking some bread or making some cakes together.

There are plenty of recipes, both simple and more adventurous online. Remember to have fun and let your child do as much as possible, even if this means that it doesn't turn out like the pictures!

There is a series on cbeebies called 'I can cook' and it shows the host Katy and some of her friends preparing and cooking simple dishes. Take a look. It is amazing how exciting children find watching other children do things like cook.

If you have some paint, you and your child can have a go at making some handprint hens.

Do some experiments with a sieve and things like water, flour, salt, lentils, rice, pasta to see which things go through the sieve and which don't. Can your child tell you why some things go through and some don't? Do you have a colander and/or strainer that they can try as well?

When you have finished exploring the story, and if it is possible for you to do so, please take some photos of what your child has been doing and send it to;
