The Call to Serve

Service is a sacred responsibility entrusted to us by God Himself. The Church, our spiritual fathers, and our fellow servants guide and support us in answering His call. God uses us as His instruments to bring His children into His light and shelter them in His care.

We all come to this class with different levels of knowledge and understanding, and we all have room to grow. No one is more worthy to serve than another. It is the Holy Spirit who works through each of us to serve God’s children.

The Discipline of Preparation

Making room for the Holy Spirit to work through us takes steady spiritual discipline, and that discipline begins now. Faithful attendance at Servants’ Preparation is the most important part of that discipline during this time. Serving also means committing to observe all the fasts appointed by the Church in their fullness.

1. Endorsement by a Current Servant

By signing, I endorse this student for Servants’ Preparation and accept responsibility for following up on their attendance. I will check in regularly on their progress and be a point of contact as they develop the discipline expected of a servant.

Each servant may endorse no more than three students this year.
