Board Organizational Tree

The Board of Directors shall consist of a President, and five vice presidents. The Vice Presidents shall be the Vice President of Finance, the Vice President of Operations, the Vice President of Human Resources, the Vice President of Entertainment, and the Vice President of Public Relations. Together the Board of Directors shall have the responsibility to set forth the general workings of the organization and decide on officers and committee members.

The Officers of the Board shall operate as the heads of the committees and shall report directly to the Director in charge of their committee. In the absence of a Vice President the Officers in that branch of the organization shall fill the vice president's position on the board of directors and shall have voting rights on matters over which they are directly responsible.

In the absence of both a Vice President and officers over a given branch of the organization the remaining Directors shall delegate among themselves who shall have the responsibilities of the vacated position.
