

Angela Mitchell Hill: A Proven Leader and Empowered Entrepreneur in Nashville

Angela Mitchell Hill has been a vital presence in the Nashville International Airport business community, serving as a local Airport Concession Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (ACDBE) representative for nearly two decades. Angela's work in airport concessions, coupled with a profound commitment to the community, has driven economic growth and set new standards for entrepreneurial success.

With a business career enriched by prestigious accolades, Angela's continued pursuit of excellence and community advocacy have not gone unnoticed. In August of 2023, Angela was nominated for Nashville's Business Journal's Most Admired CEO award, a testament to the impeccable leadership and influential impact Angela brings to the business landscape.

Further reinforcing Angela's standing as a formidable leader, Angela clinched the Nashville Business Journal's 2021 Women of Influence Awards in the Entrepreneur category. This accolade recognizes women who not only succeed in their own businesses but also pave the way for other aspiring female leaders in their respective industries.

Augmenting her impressive list of recognitions, Angela's unwavering commitment to elevating the travelers' experience at the Nashville International Airport has been met with widespread appreciation. Her most recent venture, NaSah's Nurture Nature, garnered applaud, getting nominated for Best Travelers' Service at AXN2023 in addition to receiving acknowledgment from Fraport's WINGS Program in July 2023. Notably, this becomes Angela's spa/specialty retail concept's third acknowledgment from Fraport within the year, an undeniable testament to her continued excellence. The trail of accolades vividly mirrors Angela's transformative influence within the Nashville International Airport community and underscores her far-reaching impact.

NailEd It Empowerment was developed by Angela to assist other in doing business at airports. Through NailEd It Empowerment's custom-crafted programs, Angela has paved the way for aspiring entrepreneurs and suppliers to excel within the challenging airport market sphere. The program "From StoreFront to Concessionaire" has been designed to enlighten those interested in carving out a niche in airport concessions. Similarly, "From Kitchen to Concourse" serves to empower those looking to seize supplier opportunities at airports. These initiatives underscore Angela's dedication to imparting her wealth of knowledge, lessons learned and personal insights, helping others navigate their paths to success. In essence, Angela's distinguished career full of accolades, enduring dedication to professional development and growth, and commitment to community advancement stand as an emblem of entrepreneurial excellence, leadership, and community empowerment.

Emphasizing her extraordinary strength and resilience, Angela's journey began with merely $27 and audacious dreams. Her story is a testament to enduring spirit, proving that passion and perseverance can turn the humblest of beginnings into a story of significant success.