

As part of our mission, we will continue to positively impact our community. Here are the ways Krewe de Halcyon has touch the lives of others since May 2015:

- Donated over 200 pair of eyeglasses to the Lions Club International “Recycle for Sight” Program
- Homeless Outreach Projects – Prepare and donate personal hygiene bags for the homeless with notes of encouragement (a total of 285 bags and counting)
- St. Jude Children’s Hospital
- Gonzales Veterans’ Parade
- Wreaths Across America
- Sponsored the Ascension Veterans Association – Attended monthly meetings and assisted with projects and fundraisers
- Volunteer at Petite’s Farm Day – A special day where children, including special needs children, and their families are able to eat, play games, do crafts, ride horses and pet animals for free!
- Operation Christmas Child Project
- Partnership Investment Sponsor of the Jambalaya Festival
- Helping Heal Little Hearts Sponsor of the Louisiana Pediatric Cardiology Foundation
- Sponsor of The Arc of East Ascension’s Dancing for a Cause Fundraiser
- Ryan’s Sickle Cell Anemia
- March of Dimes
- Participated and raised money for the Muscular Dystrophy Association Family Day, American Heart Association Walk, and Ascension Veterans Associations’ Musical Tribute Fundraisers
- Helped flood victims – Volunteered at Lamar Dixon’s shelter; worked at individuals’ homes; collected and donated clothes, household products and personal hygiene items
- Dutchtown High School's Dress for HOCO Success Project
- Adopt families in need during the holidays
- Collected and donated coats and socks for kids during the winter
- Collected eye glasses and hats for the Honduras Mission Trip, as well as donate 2 Mardi Gras Ball tickets to St. John’s raffle each year to help raise money for projects with the Olancho Aid Foundation
- Sponsored raffle for the Christy Dugas Medical Fund
- Sponsored the Dutchtown HS Debate Team’s HOCO float in a local parade.

What’s next? Let us know...live.love.give.