

Fallin' Feathers Duck Club

Rules, Regulations and Reservations

- 1) ALL State and Federal laws, rules and guidelines WILL apply as they currently appear in the manual(s).
- 2) All equipment provided including, but not limited to, blinds and pits are, will be, and remain the property under the ownership of Fallin' Feathers Duck Club (FFDC) and cannot be altered, relocated, removed, transferred, or otherwise replaced without written consent of Fallin' Feathers Duck Club.
- 3) Afternoon/evening hunts will be considered by Fallin' Feathers Duck Club on an individual basis putting into consideration of the success of a particular group(s) morning hunt. The final decision is that of Fallin' Feathers Duck Club.
- 4) Each participant is responsible for, always, the handling of his or her firearm and shall always be in control of and practice safe muzzle control of the firearm. If a participant is in violation and shows neglect of firearm safety/muzzle control he or she will be asked to unload the firearm, case it up and leave the blind/pit immediately.
- 5) All firearms MUST be in a soft or hard case any time it is in transport whether it be by land or water. All firearms will remain in the case until all participants have the hunt area set up.
- 6) Duck lanyards/waterfowl straps are required for claiming and transporting your waterfowl from the blind/pit.
- 7) Once all participants are located inside the blind or pit the firearm can be taken out of the case. The firearm must not be loaded until 10 minutes before shooting hours begin.
- 8) For safety, the blind guide and/or the pit guide will call the shot. The guide may appoint one participant in the blind/pit to call the shot.
- 9) If and/or when blind guide and/or pit guide calls CEASE FIRE all participants will CEASE FIRE and stop shooting immediately. A CEASE FIRE will be called if there is an observation of a safety violation, firearm malfunction.
- 10) In the event of the blind/pit producing a daily limit (everyone in that party limiting out) that blind/pit location is closed for the remainder of the day.
- 11) Payment: When booking a blind/pit for a hunt, a deposit is required. The deposit is half the price of the total booking. The remaining balance is due 14 days before your booked hunt. Your failure to pay the remaining balance 14 days before your booked hunt constitutes your understanding and agreement that your reservation is cancelled by you and that the deposit will not be refunded. ALL DEPOSITS ARE NON-REFUNDABLE. Any questions regarding deposits are to be directed to Arthur Loyd, individually.
- 12) Cancellations: If the hunting party cannot make the date, all attempts will be made to re-book the hunt. All acceptable and logical reasons for re-booking will be taken into consideration. These circumstances will be dealt with on an individual basis between the individual who booked the hunt and Fallin' Feathers Duck Club. We will do our best to attempt to offer dates that are open for re-booking in the same season if applicable. No hunts cancelled by the party or Fallin' Feathers Duck Club will be carried over to the next year or refunded.

I have read, reviewed, and understand the above Rules and Regulations of Fallin Feathers Duck Club and hereby agree to follow and abide by them. I understand and agree that if there are any violations as stated above, I am responsible for the fees and payment of the same.
