

Capital Salute: D-Day Plus 70

...is to be an on-line and hard-copy booklet capsulizing, in only 70 words per entry, the D-Day recollections of frequent guests to Columbia, and Greater Columbia-area resident veterans who were serving during the period of June 6, 1944, in any branch of service.

For your, or your loved one's service and recollections to be included, please email words and a WWII-era picture of yourself to capitalsaluteddayplus70@gmail.com.

In subject line please insert D-Day Booklet.

Please begin your submission with:

Your office/rank and name (insert nickname if that is how you are known) on June 6, 1944: _____

Assignment at that time: _____

Geographically, where you were stationed on June 6, 1944: _____

Where you entered service/enlisted (hometown?) _____

Where were you, what were you doing when you learned the Germans had surrendered? _____

What happened next (re-assigned?); and at what rank, on what date did you complete your service? _____

CURRENT CONTACT INFORMATION:

Phone/email: _____

Submission deadline: April 15, 2014. 2014. Thank you for your service.