

The Port Huron Musicale Scholarships For Music Lessons

Scholarships for private music lessons are available to be used during the 2018-2019 school year by students currently in grades 4- middle college. Auditions will be held on Friday, April 20 and Saturday, April 21, 2018.

These Scholarships provide partial payment for 30 private lessons on all band instruments, strings or piano for students in grades 5 through middle college in 2018-2019 school year. Students in grades 5 through middle college may also audition for voice lessons.

Beginners may apply.

A beginner is someone who has an interest in music and must have access to an instrument, if an award is granted.
